9) A general circular has also to issue with reference to the Dewan's observations para 2 above. The practice regarding the powers of Heads of Depts & Dy. Comrs in regard to this matter has varied from time to time Prior to 1906, it does not seem to have been on a uniform basis. In 1906, it was laid down that applications for C. leave on behalf of Heads of Depts & Dy. Comrs should be submitted to Govt. for sanction In 1916, the above restriction was withdrawn & Heads of Depts & Dy Comrs were authorised to avail themselves of C. leave & merely report to Govt. the dates of departure & return. The limit was at first 5 days, but this was later on extended to 7 days in 1925. In 1931, the limit was reduced to 3 days and this is the G.O. now in force.

10) The present practice therefore permits of casual leave up to 3 days only being availed of by Dy Comrs & Heads of Depts. without previous permission of Govt. ~~The Heads~~ The following points are not quite clear under existing orders ~~etc~~

(i) The extent to which any holidays may be combined with 3 days casual leave, without previous permission of Govt.

(ii) Whether previous permission of Govt. is not necessary to avail of short holidays (not leave) like Sunday, & leave headquarters

11) The Dewan has suggested issue of instructions requiring the Dy. Comrs (& perhaps Heads of Departments) to obtain previous sanction of Govt. for casual leave, or at any rate for leaving jurisdiction As noted above, prior to 1916 such sanction was necessary

Dear Mr. Ranga Rao,

With reference to our conversation to-day in regard to my report of casual leave yesterday and to-day and utilisation of the holidays on the 12th and 13th, I write to say that I had arranged to be at Kadur on the 14th, the last day of Mohurram. I have assured myself that there is no anxiety on account of Mohurram in the District and in case of any unforeseen need I would be at Kadur on that day. I beg to say also that I have generally avoided leaving the District without permission.

I wish to report also that I did not use casual leave yesterday. I left Chickmagalur in the afternoon. To make things even surer, I am returning to Chickmagalur on the 13th afternoon. I shall thus have used only one day's casual leave and utilised one holiday and part of another

Yours sincerely,

M. Venkatesaiyengar
